STEELERS Training Camp History

THE STEELERS have held their annual training camp at several locations throughout club history before settling on their current camp home at Saint Vincent College. The 2012 season marks the 47th consecutive year that the Steelers have held their preseason training camp in Latrobe, Pa. The Steelers' 47-year tenure at Saint Vincent College ranks second (tied with Minnesota) in the NFL for training camp longevity, trailing only the Green Bay Packers, who have held their preseason camp at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., for 55 years. The final two weeks of the Steelers' 1966 training camp were held at St. Vincent College after beginning camp at the University of Rhode Island.

The Steelers first full camp at St. Vincent College took place in 1967.

The following is a complete list of places where the Pittsburgh Steelers have held their training camps, along with the years they were there:

HEINZ KETCHUP

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas—down to the embossed "57" on the bottle's neck—of the Heinz Ketchup 14 ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet X 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53—300 pound NFL linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in 3/4 of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottle.

All parties should be aware that the names submitted for the credentials must be the names that show up to the stadium with valid government-issued photo identification. Once the credentialed members of the media arrive at Heinz Field, their credential number will be on a security list and matched with a name.

Credentials cannot be transferred or altered on game days or days leading up to the game to reflect a credential user other than the person the credential was issued to by the Steelers organization.

Media who are assigned to cover every Steelers' home game may apply for season credentials. Season-long credentials will be distributed prior to the team's first preseason game.

Media who receive credentials on a game-by-game basis must pick up their credentials at Media Will Call located at Heinz Field next to the Steelers administrative offices entrance on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center. Government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials at Will Call.

Due to recommended security procedures, the Steelers do not mail out credentials.

Training Camp

Credentials

Media seeking credentials to the Steelers training camp at Saint Vincent College (Latrobe, Pa.) must first contact the team's media relations department for approval by emailing credentials@steelers.nfl.com. Guidelines will be provided at that time. The Steelers reserve the right to deny media credentials to the team's training camp. Requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Check-in

All media covering Steelers training camp must immediately check in at the team's media relations office located at St. Benedict Hall. All media must present a valid photo ID for a media credential.

Credentialed media will receive access to designated areas of the Steelers training camp facility, including the media workroom in Benedict Hall, practice fields and the cafeteria. Interviews are prohibited in the team's cafeteria. Media members are prohibited from entering the players'/coaches' dormitory or locker room at any time.

Parking

Upon check-in media will be provided with a parking pass and will be directed to park in the upper parking lot behind the team's dormitories. Parking passes are required for all media attending Steelers training camp.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department.

Players are generally available on the field after each practice. Locker room access is prohibited during training camp. Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Coach Tomlin is generally available on the field on a daily basis after the team's final practice of the day. On the days when Coach Tomlin holds his weekly press conference, he will not be available to media after practice.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators and assistant coaches are generally available after each practice with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers media relations. Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' training camp. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers' media relations.

Media members are permitted to utilize all social networking tools (Twitter, Facebook, blogging, text alerts, etc.) only during practices that are open to the public.

Practice Field Access

Credentialed print and electronic media are allowed to watch Steelers practices in their entirety. All media must be at field level. Media are prohibited from watching practice from the hillside without prior approval from the team's media relations department. Videotaping any portion of practice from the hillside or other remote locations is strictly prohibited. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

All photographers (still and video) are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime players are in a team formation. All photographers are prohibited from any use of their cameras anywhere on Saint Vincent's campus other than the designated spots on the practice fields and outside of the cafeteria.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice, any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

In the event of inclement weather, the team may be forced to practice indoors. Media may be allowed to attend indoor practices (at the team's discretion), but access will be limited.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

In Season/Off-Season

Steelers Practice Facility

All Steelers daily football operations take place at the team's headquarters at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and not at Heinz Field. Coaches and players are at Heinz Field only on game days.

All media visiting Steelers headquarters must sign in at the front desk upon arrival and receive a day badge. Badges must be worn at all times.

All media must remain in the team's media workroom while at the team's headquarters. The team's first and second floor lobby areas are not to be used for workspace or to conduct interviews.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Media setting up for sit-down interviews must be chaperoned to designated areas by Steelers media relations.

Coaching offices and team meeting rooms are off limits to media. Interviews and any videotaping in the Steelers parking lot are prohibited. The team requires all interviews at the team's headquarters only be conducted in the team's locker room and other areas specifically designated by the team's media relations department.

While we understand the importance of breaking news, our expectation is that all media that cover the team will respect club policies that close walk-thru's and offseason workouts to the media, and that media will not resort to alternate means of recording those sessions even from a remote location. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subject to review.

Steelers South Side Camera Credential Policy

The Pittsburgh Steelers require all visiting media who intend to use any type of electronic recording device to comply with the following policies when covering the team at club practices or events. The policies govern the online use of audio and video interviews and press conference content on non-game days and weekdays. These rules are designed to enable news organization websites to "illustrate" their coverage of the NFL with daily audio/video sound bites that supplement and complement the work of their reporters and columnists:

PITTSBURGH STEELERS Media Guidelines

- All media members are required to wear credentials when on-site covering the Steelers at team headquarters.
- Camera operators may shoot video and still photos only in designated areas at the Steelers headquarters. These areas include and are limited to the practice field, locker room, media workroom and areas designated by the club's media relations department only. Still photographers do not have access to the locker room.
- Up to 90 seconds per day of audio and/or video of interviews or press conferences with NFL employees (including, but not limited to, players and coaches) or of team practice footage may be used on the Internet by credentialed news organizations. The content may not be used live and may be archived for no more than 24 hours. This applies to both game days and non-game days.

Video/audio material comprised entirely of a credentialed media organization employee providing commentary or analysis, including stand-up video/audio material shot on the field or at other stadium or club facility locations (subject to generally applicable safety and venue management restrictions or shooting locations and times), may be distributed via media organizations' Internet sites.

The usage conditions are as follows:

- The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to NFL.com and the corresponding club site. For example: For more info, go to www.nfl.com and www.steelers.com.
- The content may be used only in an editorial context (such as in links that illustrate stories or in multimedia news sections) and may not be presented in stand alone multimedia entertainment sections of third party websites.
- No integrated advertising is permitted. Footage may appear on pages with banners and contextual ads, but the ads may not be specifically related to the NFL audio/ video content.

Practice Field Access

Only local Pittsburgh media are allowed to watch Steelers practices. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

Out of town media are prohibited from watching any portion of the team's practices.

All photographers are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime the players are in a team formation.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice.

Media may not shoot video of the team leaving the field at the end of practice.

Any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department. The Steelers ask that media respect the privacy of players/coaches/staff and refrain from approaching any members of the organization or their families at their places of residence. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subjected to review.

Players are generally available in the locker room only at lunchtime and after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Players are available in the locker room after practice only on Fridays. Player interviews are not to be conducted on the practice field or in other areas outside of the locker room, including the parking lot area, without prior approval from the Steelers' media relations department. Still photographers are not allowed in the Steelers' locker room.

Coach Tomlin will hold a weekly press conference every Tuesday at noon in the Steelers' media workroom. He will also be available after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays (upon request) in the media workroom.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators will generally be available on Thursdays. Assistant coaches are available only with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department. The best time to interview assistant coaches is as they leave the field after practice.

Only Coach Tomlin will be available to media on game days. Assistant Coaches are not available for interviews on game days.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers' media relations.

Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' headquarters. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

Satellite trucks are required to park on the side of the Steelers' practice facility (near the train tracks). Media must seek prior approval for any exceptions.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers' media relations.

Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Parking

All media are required to park on the opposite side of the Steelers' indoor practice facility from the team's offices.

Media with physical disabilities should make prior arrangements with Steelers media relations for access to handicapped parking.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Pittsburgh Steelers are proud to be a part of the Western Pennsylvania community. The organization's strong commitment to this area dates back to 1933 when Arthur J. Rooney founded the team. Steelers Chairman Emeritus Dan Rooney and President Art Rooney II are known as two of the most active NFL owners and are some of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Steelers players, coaches and front office staff are involved in appearances, charitable donations and outreach programs with nonprofit and community groups. It's our way of giving back to the community that has given us so much for 80 years!

2012

Steelers

Mike Tomlin Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers' history.

In Tomlin's five years as head coach, he has guided the Steelers' defense to the NFL's top ranking in total defense three times. He has also sent a total of 36 selections to the league's annual Pro Bowl, including five following the 2011 season. Tomlin has reached the playoffs four times in his first five seasons, including two trips to the Super Bowl (winning Super Bowl XLIII).

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers' head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has compiled a 55-25 record in the regular season during his five-year head coaching career. His .688 winning percentage in his first five seasons is the best in team history and it is the highest winning percentage amongst active NFL coaches. In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team has posted 12 wins, which marks only the second time in team history it has been achieved.

The Steelers finished the 2011 season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, upping his record at Heinz Field in his five seasons as head coach to 31-9. He also had five players (QB Ben Roethlisberger, WR Mike Wallace, C Maurkice Pouncey, S Troy Polamalu and KR/WR Antonio Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed, points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Hines Ward, WR Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (RB Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC, and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

Mike Tomlin

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record in 2009 after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers' history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers' head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by running back Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

John Mitchell

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

John Mitchell is in his 19th season as the Steelers' defensive line coach, ranking him as the longest-tenured member of the Steelers' coaching staff. He remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007, and was promoted to assistant head coach.

Mitchell, who joined the Steelers' coaching staff on Jan. 31, 1994, is in his 40th season of coaching, including 16 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 22nd season as an NFL coach.

Mitchell has been instrumental in the success of the Steelers' defensive linemen, including Pro Bowlers Casey Hampton and Brett Keisel. He continues to cultivate the future of the defensive line through the development of Ziggy Hood and Cameron Heyward.

Under his guidance, Pittsburgh's defensive front helped the Steelers lead the NFL in run defense five times and finish in the top three on 12 separate occasions. The team only allowed one 100-yard rusher for a stretch of 50 straight regular season games from 2007-10 and allowed just 62.8 yards per game rushing in 2010, shattering the previous team record set in 2001. In addition, the 62.8 yards per game placed the Steelers as one of the best since the NFL merger in 1970.

In 2011, the Steelers defense continued to dominate opposing offenses, only giving up 4.5 yards per play, 271.8 yards per game and 14.2 points per game, ranking first in the NFL in all three categories. After only allowing 14.5 points per game in 2010, this marked the third time in team history that the Steelers gave up less than 15.0 points per game in back-to-back seasons.

Strong play by Mitchell's line was a huge reason why the Steelers finished the 2008 regular season second overall in the NFL against the run (80.3 avg.) behind only the Minnesota Vikings. In 2009, Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 sacks. In 2010, the Steelers put on a defensive showcase by leading the NFL in at least eight categories, including total sacks (48) and total points allowed (232). They became the first team in NFL history to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer rushing yards in each of their first eight games.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the Crimson Tide. Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches. He began his coaching career in 1973 as defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76). He then spent six seasons as defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) on Lou Holtz's staff.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions and returned to the college ranks in 1986 as defensive ends coach at Temple. Mitchell began a four-year stint in 1987 as linebackers coach at Louisiana State (1987-90) under former Steelers' linebacker coach Mike Archer, who was the head coach. In 1990, Mitchell became the first African-American defensive coordinator in Southeastern Conference (SEC) history when he was named LSU's defensive coordinator. He also coached the Tigers' linebackers.

Mitchell, 59, joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time Junior College All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College in 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972. In 2009, Mitchell was elected into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife Joyce live in Pittsburgh.

Todd Haley enters his first season as the offensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Haley recently served as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for the majority of the last three seasons.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Haley served as the Arizona Cardinals' offensive coordinator and was the wide receivers coach for the New York Jets and Chicago Bears and the passing game coordinator as well as wide receivers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

Haley, 45, enters his 18th season in the NFL and 16th as a coach after serving as a scouting assistant with the New York Jets in 1995-96.

In Haley's second season as the Chiefs' head coach, the team completed the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history. The 2010 Chiefs reached the postseason for the first time since 2006. Following the club's highest win total since 2005, Haley was named the 101 AFC Coach of the Year by national media members and was also awarded NFL Alumni Coach of the Year. The Chiefs' offense led the league in rushing yards, with 2,627 yards on 556 carries (164.2 ypg) after finishing 11th in rushing in 2009. It also posted 27 touchdown passes, tying for the seventh-highest total in franchise history.

Haley joined the Chiefs after a two-year stint as offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals. During his tenure with the Cardinals, the team went on to win the club's first division title since '75 and played in Super Bowl XLIII. Under Haley's guidance, Arizona's offense was one of the league's most explosive units. In 2008, Arizona tied for third in the league with a franchise-record 427 points (26.7 ppg). The Cardinals were fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game and finished second in the league in passing offense (292.1 ypg). Arizona became the fifth team in NFL history to have three wide receivers eclipse 1,000 yards in the same season.

From 1999 to 2006, Haley spent time as wide receivers coach for the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Bears and New York Jets, helping each team earn a playoff berth. Haley began his NFL career as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in '95, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

Haley earned a degree in communications from the University of North Florida in '91. In February of 2010, Haley was recognized with the Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, the highest award given by the University of North Florida Alumni Association, recognizing those who have made a significant contribution to their profession, community and society. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami, and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators.

Haley is the son of Dick Haley, former Director of Player Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1971-1991). As a youth, Haley was a ball boy for the Steelers and attended Steelers training camps with his father. Alongside his father, Haley would watch the Steelers' game and practice film.

Haley was born in Atlanta, Ga. and attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. Haley and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters: Taylor, Peyton, Kady and Ella, and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

Dick LeBeau Defensive Coordinator

Dick LeBeau is in the ninth year of his second tour of duty with the Steelers, for whom he experienced much success during the mid-1990s as both the team's defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator.

Considered the architect of the Steelers' famed "zone blitz," LeBeau was named the Steelers' defensive coordinator Jan. 16, 2004, after spending the 2003 season with the Buffalo Bills. During LeBeau's first 10 seasons as the Steelers' defensive coordinator (1995-96, 2004-11) Pittsburgh won six division titles, four AFC Championships and two Super Bowls while making the playoffs a total of eight times.

In 2009, LeBeau was recognized for his outstanding football career, both as a coach and player. In September, he was inducted into the Varsity O Alumni Association's Hall of Fame, honoring his career at Ohio State University and over 50 years in the NFL. Then in February of 2010, LeBeau was honored with the highest individual award in professional football when the Pro Football Hall of Fame announced him as a member of its Class of 2010 for his 14-year playing career as a cornerback for the Detroit Lions. LeBeau was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, Aug. 7, at Fawcett Stadium.

In 2011, the Steelers continued to showcase some of their best defense, even while contending with numerous injuries to starters. The Steelers number one-ranked pass defense held nine teams under 175 net passing yards and only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards, tying for first in the NFL. Pittsburgh was the only team to record two shutouts in 2011, marking the fifth time since 1960 that Pittsburgh recorded multiple shutouts in a season. The team finished first in total defense and led the NFL with points allowed by only allowing 14.2 points per game, marking only the third time in team history that the Steelers gave up less than 15.0 points per game in back-to-back seasons (2010, 14.5)

The Steelers led the league in at least eight defensive categories in 2010 and shattered the team record for rushing yards per game allowed by giving up just 62.8 yards. The Steelers outrushed 14 of their 16 opponents in 2010, averaging nearly 60 more yards on the ground than their opponents and finished the season with 21 interceptions, the most since 1996 when they had 23. In 2010, Troy Polamalu was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the second Steelers' player to earn the honor (James Harrison, 2008) with LeBeau as defensive coordinator.

LeBeau's defense had a season for the ages in 2008 as they led the league in a number of categories and wreaked havoc on a week-to-week basis on opposing offenses. The Steelers ended the season first in total yards (237.2 avg.), against the pass (156.9 avg.) and in points allowed per game (13.9), while finishing second against the rush (80.3 avg.). The defense was led by Harrison, who won several major awards, including AP Defensive Player of the Year, after setting a franchise record with 16 sacks. LeBeau was named "Coordinator of the Year" by Sporting News for the 2008 season.

Dick LeBeau

When LeBeau came back to the Steelers in 2004, his impact on the coaching staff was profound as Pittsburgh returned to the top of the NFL in total defense and rushing defense. In 2005, his defensive game plans played an integral part in stopping four of the NFL's top five offenses in the AFC playoffs, including limiting Seattle to just 10 points in Super Bowl XL.

Since 1994, the Steelers have led the AFC in sacks six times and the entire NFL three times. Since 2004, the Steelers have the most sacks in the NFL with 344.

LeBeau, 74, is in the 54th year of his NFL career, 14 as a player and the past 40 as a coach. Prior to his return to Pittsburgh, LeBeau served one year as the assistant head coach with the Buffalo Bills and the previous two-plus years as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals.

After five seasons in Pittsburgh from 1992-96, when he coached the secondary (1992-94) and then was defensive coordinator (1995-96), LeBeau returned to Cincinnati as the Bengals' assistant head coach/defensive coordinator (1997-2000). He was later promoted to head coach on Sept. 25, 2000 (after three games), and served in that capacity for two more seasons.

LeBeau began his coaching career as a special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1973-75. He also was an assistant coach at Green Bay (1976-79) and Cincinnati (1980-83), before serving his first term as the Bengals' defensive coordinator from 1984-91.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, LeBeau produced an outstanding pro career from which he still holds the NFL all-time record of 171 consecutive games played for a cornerback and currently is tied for seventh all-time in the NFL with 62 career interceptions. His nine interceptions in 1970 led the NFC and his 62 career interceptions ranked third in the NFL at the time of his retirement. LeBeau also appeared in three Pro Bowls.

LeBeau was born in London, Ohio. He and his wife Nancy have one son, Brandon Grant.

Al Everest is in his third season as the special teams coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Everest, who was hired on January 21, 2010, enters his 16th NFL season as a special teams coordinator.

Everest has been instrumental in the development of a young group of players who have provided a spark for the Steelers' special teams in recent years. Wide receiver Antonio Brown played a major role in the Steelers' return game success over the last two seasons. He followed up an 89-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in 2010 with a 60-yard punt return for a touchdown in 2011. Brown finished the 2011 season with a 27.3 yard average on kickoff returns and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl as a return specialist. Dating back to 1941, Brown is the third player in Steelers' history with at least one punt return for a touchdown and one kick return for a touchdown.

2010 was the year of the rookies on special teams. Emmanuel Sanders averaged 25.1 yards per kickoff return, including a long of 48 yards, while also returning four punts for 60 yards. Brown returned the team's only kickoff return for a touchdown, an 89-yarder against Tennessee in Week 2. Linebackers Jason Worilds and Stevenson Sylvester added to the special teams success by posting a total of 30 special teams tackles.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Everest coached for the San Francisco 49ers (2007-09) and has also coached in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints (2000-05) and the Arizona Cardinals (1996-99). He has more than 39 years of coaching experience in the National Football League, European professional football, college football and baseball. He earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors in 2007 from the Aguiar Kicking Academy and was named NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year in 2002 when his special teams units had three touchdown returns and five blocked kicks during the season.

Everest began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Methodist (1972) and North Texas (1973-74) before becoming an assistant coach at Cameron University (1974-75). He served as athletic director and head football coach at American School Foundation in Mexico City from 1977- 80. From 1981-87, Everest coached baseball at U.S. International University. Everest coached professional football in Italy for the Legnano Frogs (1988- 90, '93) and the Pesaro Angels (1991). He coached the secondary for the Arkansas Minors of the Pro Spring Football League in 1992 and was special teams coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Birmingham Barracudas in 1995.

Prior to his first stint with the Legnano Frogs, Everest served as athletic director and football coach at the American School Foundation in Mexico City (1977-80). In 1981, he made the decision to return stateside and joined U.S. International University from 1981-87 where he earned a doctorate degree and at the same time was the school's head baseball coach. Everest was a two-year starting safety for Southern Methodist University from 1970-71. In 1972, he started gaining coaching experience as a graduate assistant for SMU under Head Coach Hayden Fry. Everest then followed Fry to North Texas where he continued as a graduate assistant from 1973-74.

Everest's dad, Andy Everest, coached at Utah, Stanford, UCSB, SMU, North Texas and New Orleans Saints with Head Coach Bum Phillips. Together they won two Italian Super Bowls and one European Championship.

Everest has two daughters, Michelle and Kaycee, and lives in Wexford, Pa.

Keith Butler is in his 10th year on the Steelers' coaching staff after joining the staff prior to the 2003 season. He remained on staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, where Butler was the linebackers/defensive ends/special teams coach and Tomlin served as the Tigers' defensive backs coach.

Butler was named the Steelers' linebackers coach Jan. 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons in a similar capacity with the Cleveland Browns (1999-02). In 2008 Butler was named NFL Linebacker Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly.

The Steelers have a tradition of fielding some of the best pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL. In 2011 LaMarr Woodley was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month of October by registering a league-high 7.5 sacks, 25 tackles and one interception. Pittsburgh registered 35 sacks in 2011, with 28 coming at Heinz Field, ranking as the second most (36 in 1996) by a Steelers' team since sacks became an official stat in 1982.

It was linebacker Lawrence Timmons in his second season as a starter who exploded onto the scene in 2010 and led the team with 149 tackles (100 solo) and also had three sacks, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Under Butler's tutelage, James Harrison has become one of the league's most elite performers. Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, has earned two team MVP awards, recorded a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII, (the longest play in Super Bowl history), and earned his fifth straight selection to the Pro Bowl in 2011. Harrison had a team-high 10.5 sacks in 2010 after posting 10 in 2009. Harrison currently holds the team record for sacks in a season when he recorded a career-high 16 sacks in 2008. In addition, Harrison ranks second in team history for career forced fumbles with 26, behind only Greg Lloyd and sixth for career sacks with 58, only one sack shy of tying Keith Willis (59) for fifth.

Harrison and Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history. The two teamed up in 2008 to produce the most sacks in a single-season by a duo in Steelers' history with a combined 27.5 sacks. In 2009 they totaled a combined 23.5 sacks between them and in 2010 combined for 20.5 sacks. The linebacker unit as a whole was a key reason behind the 2010 Steelers finishing the regular season first overall in total defense, in sacks and against the run, and second against the pass.

Woodley has been a force defensively since he became a starter in 2008. Woodley has 48 sacks in his first five seasons with the Steelers, which ranks as the best start in franchise history and is the eighth most career sacks for a Steeler. In 2010 Woodley posted his first career interception for a touchdown and finished with 10 sacks, becoming the second player in team history behind Harrison to post at least 10 sacks in three straight years.

In 2006, Butler's linebacking crew helped the Steelers defense not allow a 100-yard rusher the entire season, and in 2005 led the AFC and ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense.

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning his coaching career at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97 and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler, 55, was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87) with Seattle. He started 132-of-146 games in his career and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813. A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the team in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Butler was born in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons — Blake, Brandon and Brett.

James Daniel is in his ninth season with Pittsburgh after remaining with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January, 2007. Daniel, 58, was named the Steelers' tight ends coach on Jan. 24, 2004.

Under Daniel's guidance, Heath Miller has become one of the top tight ends in franchise history. Miller has caught 40 postseason passes for 497 yards (12.4 avg.) and four touchdowns, all team postseason records for a tight end. With a total of 31 career touchdowns during the regular season, Miller is second on the team's all-time list for touchdowns by a tight end (Elbie Nickel, 37).

In 2011, Miller passed Nickel for the franchise lead in receptions by a tight end and moved to fourth overall in most receptions in Steelers' history with 337. Miller has recorded at least one reception in every game he has played in, including the postseason, for a streak of 58 games, dating back to 2008.

In 2010, Miller was named an offensive co-captain for the first time in his career, following his 2009 Pro Bowl season. Miller broke the team's single-season record for receptions for a tight end in 2009, catching 68 passes. Miller also posted his second career 100-yard receiving game, marking just the 11th 100-yard receiving game by a tight end in team history. In 2007, Daniel groomed a young group of tight ends that finished the season with 11 TDs, which is the most combined TDs of any Steelers' tight end corps.

During his tenure at Atlanta (1997-2003), Daniel was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl tight end Alge Crumpler, who set a team receptions mark for tight ends in 2002 and 2003 with 44 and 36, respectively. Daniel began his NFL coaching career as the tight ends coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. However, Daniel's first experience at the pro level occurred through the NFL's Fellowship Program in 1988 with the New Orleans Saints and in 1992 with the Denver Broncos and Head Coach Dan Reeves. He served under Reeves for his first 11 years in the NFL.

Daniel began his coaching career in the college ranks as the offensive line coach at Auburn (1981-92) for Head Coach Pat Dye. During Daniel's 12 years at Auburn, the Tigers appeared in nine postseason bowl games, four of his linemen earned All-America honors and several were selected All-Southeastern Conference.

Prior to Auburn, Daniel coached for seven years at Enterprise (Ala.) High School from 1974-80, during which 11 of his offensive linemen earned college scholarships.

As a collegian, Daniel was a three-year starter and four-year letter winner at Alabama State from 1970-73. Daniel is married (Myrtis) with no children.

Randy Fichtner is in his third season coaching the Steelers' quarterbacks after spending three seasons as the team's wide receivers coach. Fichtner was hired by Mike Tomlin on Jan. 29, 2007.

Ben Roethlisberger was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after the 2011 season, in which he registered the second most passing yards in franchise history (4,077) and the second most completions (324), while playing only 15 games. He was twice named AFC Offensive Player of the Week, tied a career-high of five touchdown passes in a single game, recorded five 300+ passing yard games, and broke the team's all-time record for career completions (2,090).

Fichtner continues to cultivate the quarterback position. Since he became the quarterbacks coach in 2010, the Steelers have held a 4-1 record when a quarterback other than Roethlisberger starts the game.

Roethlisberger connected with wide receivers Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown for a combined 10 touchdowns and 2,301 yards in 2011, granting both receivers 1,000 yards on the season. In 2009 the Steelers had two 1,000-yard receivers. Hines Ward posted his club record sixth 1,000-yard receiving season while Santonio Holmes posted his first career 1,000 yard receiving season, leading the team with 1,248 yards on 79 receptions. Rookie Mike Wallace led all AFC rookies with 756 receiving yards and added six touchdowns on the season.

Fichtner's receiving corps had an excellent season in 2008. Ward topped 1,000 yards (1,043) for the fifth time in his career, and Holmes was named MVP of Super Bowl XLIII after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.), including the game-winning touchdown reception with 35 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Fichtner, who instituted the spread offense at Memphis, was an integral part of the Tiger football team for six years. He was hired in 2001 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and his offense re-wrote the Memphis record book for six seasons.

In 2004, All-American running back in DeAngelo Williams led an offense that finished the year ranked ninth nationally in total offense and 10th in the nation in scoring. Fichtner was a part of unprecedented offensive success at Memphis that also contributed to the Tigers playing in three straight bowl games from 2003-05.

The 2002 squad set a record for total offense with 4,258 yards, and then the 2003 team shattered that mark with 5,779 yards of total offense. In 2004, the Tigers amassed 5,524 yards of total offense to rank second all-time. The 2004 Tigers also set school records in points scored with 430 and in passing touchdowns with 25. Fichtner was no stranger to Memphis when he joined the staff in 2001. He had previously served as an assistant for the Tigers. Prior to his second stint at Memphis, Fichtner spent four years (1997-2000) at Arkansas State University. He arrived in Jonesboro as the quarterback coach in the spring of 1997 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in August of 1997.

During his tenure with the Indians, Fichtner worked with quarterback Cleo Lemon, who set virtually every Arkansas State passing and total offense record.

Prior to joining the staff at Arkansas State, Fichtner spent three years at his alma mater, Purdue, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96. The Cleveland, Ohio, native originally went to Memphis in the fall of 1990 and coached the Tiger receivers and quarterbacks for four seasons. During his stay at Memphis, Fichtner worked with St. Louis Rams All-Pro wide receiver Isaac Bruce.

Fichtner, 47, worked as a student assistant and graduate assistant at Purdue (1985- 86) and at Michigan (1986-87), before serving as a volunteer coach at Southern California in 1988. He landed his first full-time position in 1989 as the tight ends coach at UNLV and worked for the Rebels for one season before going to Memphis. Fichtner graduated from Purdue in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion.

He is married to the former Jennifer Parker of Covington, Tenn., and the couple has three children: a son, Nathaniel Ross, and daughters, Shelby Brooke and Kirby Lynn.

Amos Jones
Assistant Special Teams Coach

Amos Jones is in his sixth season as the assistant special teams coach for the Steelers after being hired on Jan. 29, 2007.

Jones has been instrumental in the development of Antonio Brown, who in 2011 set a franchise record with 2,048 all-purpose yards, with 1,062 of those yards coming on returns. Brown returned his first career touchdown on a punt return for 60 yards and registered an 89-yard kick return for a touchdown. Dating back to 1941, he is one of the three Steelers' players with at least one punt return for a touchdown and one kick return for a touchdown. Brown finished the season with a 27.3 yard average on kickoff returns and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl.

In 2009, the Steelers were the NFL's top kickoff return team, with a record 1,581 return yards. Jones coached the Steelers with the NFL's top kick coverage unit during the 2008 season. The units were led by Anthony Madison, who led the team with 25 special teams tackles, and rookie Patrick Bailey, who was named the Steelers' Rookie of the Year for his outstanding work on special teams.

Jones, 52, spent the previous three years at Mississippi State as the special teams/linebackers coach (2004-05) and outside linebackers coach (2006). Under Jones' guidance, three linebackers earned Freshman All-SEC recognition and two punters earned all-conference honors.

A coaching veteran with more than 30 years of experience under his belt, Jones arrived at Mississippi State from James Madison University. He spent the 2003 football season as the Dukes' tight ends and special teams coach.

Prior to James Madison, Jones coached the running backs and special teams for four years at the University of Cincinnati (1999-2002). During his stay in the Queen City, Jones' handiwork helped All-American placekicker Jonathan Ruffin earn the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker in 2000. During that same time, his punter, Adam Wulfeck earned All-Conference USA honors, and he coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers.

Jones, who has coaching experience on the high school, collegiate and professional levels, coached the linebackers at Tulane University in 1995-96. He spent the 1992 season at the University of Pittsburgh as the kicking game coordinator. Jones had two stints of duty at his alma mater, the University of Alabama. He worked with the Crimson Tide special teams in 1990-91 under head coach Gene Stallings. In 1990 under his guidance, Alabama had the nation's top-rated percentage placekicker (Philip Doyle). A decade earlier, Jones began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1981-82.

Between his two assignments in Tuscaloosa, Jones coached the tight ends (1983-85) and then the defensive line (1986-88) at Temple University from 1983-88, while also coordinating with the Owls' special teams.

Jones worked one season with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League (1997), helping guide them to a Western Division playoff berth, and has worked in the high school ranks in Alabama, Florida and Louisiana.

A 1982 graduate of Alabama, Jones played safety and running back for Bryant. He was a member of the 1978 and '79 Tide teams that went 23-1 and earned back-to-back SEC titles, National Championships and Sugar Bowl crowns. Jones later earned his master's degree from Alabama.

Jones and his wife Stacey, have four children, daughter Samantha and sons Joshua, Nathan and Jeremy.

Sean Kugler is in his third season with the Steelers. He was hired on January 14, 2010 as the team's offensive line coach.

In 2011, Kugler's offensive line continued to stand strong for the Steelers offense. In six of the final seven regular-season games, the Steelers registered at least 28 carries and over 100 yards rushing in each game. The Steelers also had the highest yards per carry average in 10 years (4.4 yards). The line allowed quarterback Ben Roethlisberger to register the second most passing yards in franchise history (4,077) and the second most completions (324). In the final 10 games of the season, the Steelers were 36-for-42 in the red zone, coming away with 23 touchdowns and 13 field goals. Center Maurkice Pouncey was selected to the Pro Bowl for the second straight season and was voted first team All-Pro. Lineman Marcus Gilbert earned the 2011 Joe Greene Great Performance Award, marking the second consecutive year a lineman was chosen as the team's top rookie (Pouncey, 2010).

Despite having a number of injuries to the offensive line in 2010, Kugler's work helped the Steelers average 120.3 rushing yards per game, outrushing 17 of 19 opponents. Kugler was key in the quick development of Pouncey, who became the first Steelers' rookie lineman to start in his first NFL game since 2000 (Marvel Smith). Pouncey was also the first Pittsburgh rookie offensive lineman to make the Pro Bowl since offensive tackle Frank Varrichione in 1956 and the first Steelers rookie since linebacker Kendrell Bell in 2002.

Kugler, who is in his 11th season as an NFL coach, previously served as the offensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills from 2008-09 after joining the Bills in 2007 as the assistant offensive line coach. While there Kugler coached Jason Peters to consecutive Pro Bowls (2007-08). In 2007, the Bills' offensive line set a then team record for allowing just 26 sacks and from 2007 to 2009 paved the way for three consecutive 1,000-yard rushers. Kugler began his NFL coaching career working with both the offensive line and tight ends for the Detroit Lions from 2001-05.

Kugler served as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach for Boise State in 2006. The Broncos were the only undefeated Division I-A NCAA team, finishing the season with a 13-0 record, including a dramatic 43-42 victory over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl. The offensive line opened holes for the sixth-ranked rushing attack in the country as the Broncos averaged 222.8 yards per game and paved the way for RB Ian Johnson who rushed for 1,755 yards to rank second in the nation and led the country with 25 touchdowns. Also at Boise State, Kugler coached future Denver Pro Bowl OT Ryan Clady.

Kugler was a four-year letterwinner at the University of Texas El-Paso (UTEP) from 1984-88. He played one season in the World League of American Football (WLAF) with the Sacramento Surge in 1989. Kugler earned his degree in education at the University of South Florida in 1991 while coaching three years of high school football in Tampa, Fla. from 1990-92. He coached for eight seasons at UTEP, assisting the defensive line as a graduate assistant in 1993 before coaching tight ends (1994) and the offensive line (1995-00).

A native of Lockport, N.Y., Kugler and his wife Patsy have one daughter, Kali, and two sons, Robert, who plays on the offensive line at Purdue University, and Patrick, a senior at North Allegheny who has committed to play football at the University of Michigan.

After one season (2001) as wide receivers coach at Southern California, Wilson then joined head coach Jon Gruden's staff in Tampa Bay in 2002. Centers (827 pass receptions) and Keith Byars (610 receptions), whom Wilson coached in New England in 1997, rank first and fourth in career receptions by a running back in NFL history.

GAME 1 Baltimore 35 Pittsburgh 7

September 11, 2011 M&T Bank Stadium (71,434)

BALTIMORE — The Steelers dropped their season opener for the first time since 2002, losing to the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium, 35-7. It was the largest margin of victory for the Ravens in the series history, thanks in large part to seven Steelers' turnovers.

It only took three plays for the Ravens to score their first touchdown. RB Ray Rice took the opening snap and rushed for 36 yards. Two plays later QB Joe Flacco found WR Anquan Boldin for a 27-yard touchdown and the Ravens led 7-0.

The Steelers first turnover came late in the first quarter when LB Terrell Suggs sacked and stripped the ball from QB Ben Roethlisberger. Suggs finished with a game-high three sacks. Rice then ran it in from one-yard out to put the Ravens up 14-0. The Steelers responded on their ensuing drive. Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for an 11-yard touchdown to cut the lead 14-7. But it would be the last points the Steelers would score.

Flacco and Rice hooked up for an 11-yard touchdown prior to halftime and the Steelers found themselves in a 14-point hole. On the Steelers' first play of the second half, Ravens' NT Haloti Ngata broke free and stripped the football from RB Rashard Mendenhall, setting the Ravens up at the Steelers' 16-yard line. On the very next play, Flacco found TE Ed Dickson for an 18-yard touchdown. Flacco finished the game 17-of-29 for 224 yards with three touchdowns and zero interceptions.

On the Steelers' very next offensive play, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Ray Lewis. And on the Steelers ensuing drive, it looked as if they would find a way into the endzone, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by S Ed Reed. After Reed's interception, the Ravens marched right down the field and K Billy Cundiff connected on a 29-yard field goal.

Reed picked off Roethlisberger again in the fourth quarter, and the Steelers' RB Mewelde Moore was stripped by Lewis midway through the fourth quarter for the Steelers' seventh turnover. Cundiff connected from 30 yards out before the two-minute warning to give the Ravens the 35-7 victory.

Depite the turnovers, Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 280 yards passing. WR Mike Wallace posted his ninth career 100-yard receiving game and fourth consecutive 100-yard game in the regular season. Wallace tied a career-high with eight receptions. LB LaMarr Woodley posted his 40th career sack, which tied him for 10th on the team's all-time list.

GAME 2 Pittsburgh 24 Seattle 0

September 18, 2011 Heinz Field (63,663)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their ninth straight home opener, shutting out the Seattle Seahawks 24-0 at Heinz Field. This was the team's first shutout since the 2008 season and the second consecutive time the Seahawks have been shut out at Heinz Field.

On the Steelers' opening drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team to the Seattle one-yard line but the Seahawks held the Steelers on fourth-and-goal. The Steelers responded on their next drive when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out to go up 7-0. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 66 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers went up 14-0 in the second quarter when RB Isaac Redman scored on a 20-yard touchdown run. It was Redman's first career rushing touchdown. He finished the game with 49 yards rushing and one touchdown.

Steelers' K Shaun Suisham added a 20-yard field goal late in the first half and the Steelers took a 17-0 lead into halftime.

The Steelers scored their final points when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a two-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter. Wallace tied a career-high with eight receptions for 126 yards and one touchdown. The 126 receiving yards were the second-highest total of his career. Wallace also surpassed 100+ yards receiving for the fifth consecutive regular-season game.

The Steelers defense did not budge against Seattle, only letting up 164 total yards (133 passing, 31 rushing). The 164 yards allowed were the third-lowest total since the start of the 2008 season. The defense added five sacks. NT Steve McLendon recorded his first career half-sack and LB James Harrison became just the seventh player in team history to reach 50 sacks with his sack of QB Tarvaris Jackson.

GAME 3 Pittsburgh 23 Indianapolis 20

September 25, 2011 Lucas Oil Stadium (66,309)

INDIANAPOLIS — K Shaun Suisham nailed a 38-yard field goal with only four seconds left in the game to lift the Steelers to a 23-20 victory against the Indianapolis Colts at Lucas Oil Stadium. With the victory, the Steelers improved to 2-1 on the season. It marked the first victory for the Steelers in Indianapolis during the regular season since 1991.

The Steelers took the opening kickoff and went up 3-0 on Suisham's 48-yard field goal. Late in the first quarter, the Steelers took a 10-0 lead when QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for an 81-yard touchdown. Wallace finished the game with a career-high 144 yards receiving and one touchdown, extending his franchise record to six consecutive 100-yard receiving games.

The Colts scored 13 unanswered points, thanks in large part to three Steelers' turnovers. A Roethlisberger fumble set up K Adam Vinatieri's 21-yard field goal to cut the lead 10-3. And with less than two minutes remaining in the half, Roethlisberger was sacked and stripped and Colts' DE Jamaal Anderson scooped the ball up and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off and Vinatieri connected from 25 yards out to give the Colts a 13-10 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game 13-13 early in the fourth quarter on Suisham's 44-yard field goal. Midway through the fourth quarter the Steelers' defense forced its first turnover of the season on LB James Harrison's sack and forced fumble. S Troy Polamalu picked up the loose ball and returned it 16 yards to give the Steelers a 20-13 lead.

The Colts though struck on their next drive. RB Joseph Addai scored from six yards out to tie the game 20-20. But there was plenty of time for the Steelers to score. Roethlisberger led the team on a 10-play, 60-yard drive that was capped off by Suisham's game-winning field goal. Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 364 yards passing with one touchdown.

GAME 8 Pittsburgh 25 New England 17

October 30, 2011 Heinz Field (64,424)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth straight contest, defeating the New England Patriots 25-17 at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 6-2 on the season.

The Steelers scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the fourth straight game as they drove 68 yards on 11 plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger found RB Mewelde Moore for a five-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. Roethlisberger finished the game with a season-high 365 passing yards and two touchdowns.

The Steelers increased their lead to 10-0 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 33-yard field goal. Roethlisberger looked poised to add to the lead but he was picked off by LB Gary Guyton. Guyton's interception set the Patriots up at the Steelers' eight-yard line. Two plays later QB Tom Brady found WR Deion Branch for a two-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 10-7.

Roethlisberger answered on the ensuing drive, finding WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 17-7 lead. Patirots K Stephen Gostkowksi added a 46-yard field goal prior to halftime to cut the lead 17-10.

The Steelers offense continued to control the clock after halftime. Suisham added two field goals (21, 23) to give the Steelers a 23-10 lead. The Patriots made the last few minutes of the fourth quarter very interesting. Brady found TE Aaron Hernandez for a one-yard score to cut the lead to 23-17. The Patriots onside kick attempt failed but the Steelers were unable to run out the clock. That left Brady with less than 30 seconds to work.

The Steelers defense sealed the win when DE Brett Keisel sacked Brady and forced a fumble. The ball rolled through the end zone and out of bounds for a safety. LB LaMarr Woodley added two sacks, becoming the first player in team history to register at least 1.5 sacks in four consecutive regular-season games. The Steelers defense held the Patriots to season-lows in total net yards (213), passing yards (198) and points (17).

The Steelers offense totaled 427 total yards (329 passing and 98 rushing), while controlling the football for almost 40 minutes.

November 27, 2011 Arrowhead Stadium (72,173)

KANSAS CITY — CB Keenan Lewis' interception of Chiefs' QB Tyler Palko late in the fourth quarter sealed the 13-9 Steelers' victory against the Kansas City Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium. The Steelers improved to 8-3 on the season and remained tied for first place in the AFC North.

Palko led the Chiefs on an 11-play, 57-yard drive set up K Ryan Succop for a 41-yard field goal on the opening drive of the game to put the Chiefs up 3-0. The Steelers marched the ball down the field on their ensuing possession, but RB Mewelde Moore fumbled and the Chiefs recovered the football in the end zone.

On the next drive the Steelers' defense came up big when DE Brett Keisel recovered a Palko fumble. On the Chiefs' next possession, CB Ike Taylor picked off Palko. K Shaun Suisham hit a 21-yard field goal to tie the game 3-3. S Ryan Mundy picked off Palko on the Chiefs' following possession. It was Mundy's first career interception.

The Steelers then marched down the field. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Weslye Saunders for a two-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 10-3 lead. It was Saunders' first career touchdown reception. Roethlisberger finished the game with 193 yards passing and one touchdown.

Late in the second quarter, Succop connected on a 49-yard field goal to cut the lead to 10-6. But as the halftime whistle sounded, Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal of his own to give the Steelers a 13-6 lead going into the break.

Though the Steelers' offense did not score a point in the second half, the Steelers' defense repeatedly shut down the Chiefs. Succop was able to make a 40-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter but it was too little, too late. As the Chiefs were driving to win the game, Palko threw his third interception of the night to Lewis.

The Steelers' offense outgained the Chiefs 290-252, and the Steelers' defense forced four turnovers.

GAME 12 Pittsburgh 35 Cincinnati 7

December 4, 2011 Heinz Field (63,697)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers exploded for 28 second quarter points and routed the Cincinnati Bengals 35-7 at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 9-3 on the season and remained tied for first place in the AFC North.

The Steelers got a lot of help in all three phases of the game. Cincinnati threatened on their first possession of the game, but DE Cameron Heyward blocked K Mike Nugent's field goal attempt, ending Cincinnati's momentum. Then the Steelers offense kicked it into high gear.

RB Rashard Mendenhall scored two consecutive touchdowns. Mendenhall first scored on a three-yard run and then scored on a five-yard run just two minutes later to give the Steelers a 14-0 lead. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 60 rushing yards and two touchdowns. His 28 career rushing touchdowns moved him into fifth place on the Steelers' all-time rushing touchdowns list.

On the Bengals ensuing drive, WR Brandon Tate was stripped on his kickoff return by LB Stevenson Sylvester and WR Emmanuel Sanders fell on the loose ball. Three plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 12-yard touchdown pass to give the Steelers a 21-0 lead.

The Bengals though would strike on their next drive, marching 80 yards in 10 plays. QB Andy Dalton found WR A.J. Green for an 11-yard touchdown to get the Bengals their only seven points of the game.

The Steelers forced the Bengals to punt on their next possession, and that's when the special teams delivered. WR Antonio Brown returned a punt 60 yards for a touchdown, marking the first punt return for a touchdown by the Steelers since the 2006 regular season. The Steelers went into halftime with a 28-7 lead.

The Steelers went ahead 35-7 when Roethlisberger found Wallace again, this time for a 19-yard touchdown. He finished the game 15-of-23 for 176 yards and two touchdowns. Roethlisberger's 2,026 career completions moved him into first place on the Steelers all-time list for completions, passing Terry Bradshaw (2,025) for the most in team history.

Both teams removed their starters in the fourth quarter. CB Ike Taylor though picked off QB Bruce Gradkowski early in the fourth quarter. It marked the first time Taylor had interceptions in back-to-back regular season games in his career.

GAME 13 Pittsburgh 14 Cleveland 3

December 8, 2011 Heinz Field (60,754)

PITTSBURGH — Clinging to a 7-3 lead late in the game, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 79-yard touchdown pass to give the Steelers a 14-3 victory. The Steelers improved to 10-3 on the season while the Browns fell to 4-9.

The Browns took a 3-0 lead on their opening drive when K Phil Dawson connected on a 20-yard field goal.

The Steelers responded on their first drive of the game, going 73 yards on five plays. Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for an 11-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-3 lead. It was Cotchery's second career touchdown as a Steeler.

The Steelers defense made key plays, giving the Steelers offense many opportunities to increase their lead, but both WR Hines Ward and TE Heath Miller fumbled in the red zone. Midway through the second quarter, it appeared that Roethlisberger sustained a significant injury to his left leg and would miss the rest of the first half. But Roethlisberger came on the field after halftime and played every snap in the second half.

The Steelers and Browns though could not capitalize on each other's mistakes. Roethlisberger was picked off by S Mike Adams but the Browns could not score despite being in Steelers' territory. Cleveland had the ball inside the Steelers' 20-yard line with less than five minutes to go but QB Colt McCoy threw his second interception, this time to CB William Gay in the end zone, and the Steelers took over at the Cleveland 20-yard line.

Two plays later, Roethlisberger found Brown for the game-winning touchdown. Roethlisberger finished with 280 yards passing and two touchdowns for a passer rating of 129.6, his highest of the season. He improved to 13-1 all time against the Browns. Brown continued his dominance as he led the Steelers in either receptions or receiving yards for the seventh consecutive game.

GAME 14 San Francisco 20 Pittsburgh 3

December 19, 2011 Candlestick Park (69,732)

SAN FRANCISCO — The Steelers suffered a 20-3 loss against the San Francisco 49ers on Monday Night Football at Candlestick Park. Despite the loss, the Steelers still clinched a playoff spot and remained tied for first place in the AFC North.

The start of the game was delayed because of a power outage, but once the game began, the Steelers had success moving the football early. However, their first two drives ended with interceptions. On the Steelers' first possession, QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by CB Carlos Rodgers. That led to a David Akers' 22-yard field goal, and the 49ers led 3-0.

Roethlisberger was picked off again on the Steelers' next drive, which led to another Akers' field goal. His 38-yard boot gave the 49ers a 6-0 lead. Right after Akers' field goal, the game was delayed again because of a power outage. Once play resumed, neither team was able to score, and the 49ers led 6-0 at halftime.

The Steelers finally got on the board midway through the third quarter when K Shaun Suisham nailed a 51-yard kick to cut the lead to 6-3. It was Suisham's longest field goal as a Steeler.

The 49ers drove right down the field on their ensuing drive. QB Alex Smith found TE Vernon Davis for a one-yard score to give the 49ers a 13-3 lead. Two drives later, Roethlisberger fumbled the football when he was sacked, giving the 49ers excellent field position. RB Frank Gore scored from five yards out to give the 49ers the 20-3 victory.

Despite outgaining the 49ers 389-287, the Steelers turned the ball over four times and did not force any turnovers. Roethlisberger threw for 330 yards but he threw three interceptions. WR Jerricho Cotchery recorded a season-high, and his highest total as a Steeler, with 93 receiving yards. TE Heath Miller added a season-high 82 receiving yards.

GAME 15 Pittsburgh 27 St. Louis 0

December 24, 2011 Heinz Field (60,081)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers, led by their running game and stingy defense, shut out the St. Louis Rams 27-0 in the final regular-season home game at Heinz Field in 2011. This marked the 29th shutout for the Steelers since 1960, which is the second most in the NFL during that span. With the victory, the Steelers improved to 11-4 on the season, including a 7-1 record at home.

The Steelers took a 3-0 lead when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 21-yard field goal late in the first quarter. The Steelers increased their lead 10-0 when rookie RB John Clay scored on a 10-yard touchdown run midway through the second quarter. It was Clay's first career carry. The Steelers took a 10-0 lead into halftime.

Early in the third quarter, Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 13-0 lead. The Steelers then got two fourth-quarter rushing touchdowns. RB Rashard Mendenhall scored the first on a one-yard run to give the Steelers a 20-0 lead. RB Isaac Redman then scored from two yards out to give the Steelers their final score.

Three Steelers running backs (Clay, Mendenhall and Redman) each scored a rushing touchdown, marking the first time since the 2008 season that three different Pittsburgh players each scored a rushing touchdown. The Steelers rushing attack finished with 169 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns.

QB Charlie Batch, filling in for injured QB Ben Roethlisberger, finished 15-of-22 for 208 yards, and improved to 5-2 as the Steelers starting quarterback. WR Antonio Brown set the franchise single-season record for all-purpose yards as he registered 77 all-purpose yards for the game to give him 2,048 on the season. Brown also surpassed 1,000 receiving yards on the season for the first time in his career.

The Steelers defense put together one of their most impressive performances of the season. They had three sacks and forced the Rams to punt seven times. They also allowed a season-low 68 net passing yards.

For the 12th time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, the Steelers won at least seven regular-season home games, including the fourth time in the history of Heinz Field (opened in 2001).

GAME 16 Pittsburgh 13 Cleveland 9

January 1, 2012 Cleveland Browns Stadium (68,266)

CLEVELAND — The Steelers held on to beat the Cleveland Browns 13-9 in the 2011 regular-season finale at Cleveland Browns Stadium. The Steelers finished the season with a 12-4 record and entered the playoffs as the fifth seed.

The Browns took a 3-0 lead in the second quarter when K Phil Dawson connected from 26 yards. Dawson connected on a 45-yard field goal with a minute left in the first half to give the Browns a 6-0 lead. However it left the Steelers with enough time to cut into the lead. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 19-yard field goal as time expired and the Steelers went into halftime trailing 6-3.

Suisham booted a 29-yard field goal early in the third quarter to tie the game at 6-6. On the Browns' ensuing drive, S Troy Polamalu picked off Browns' QB Seneca Wallace to set the Steelers up in Browns' territory. RB Isaac Redman scored on a seven-yard run to give the Steelers a 13-6 lead.

Dawson connected on a 49-yard field goal to cut the Steelers lead 13-9. The Browns had plenty of opportunities to take the lead but they were unable to capitalize on two Steelers' fumbles. The Browns even had a chance to win the game on the final play, but Wallace's pass was broken up in the endzone by Steeler defenders.

QB Ben Roethlisberger finished with 221 yards passing, giving him 4,077 yards on the season. It was the second time in his career that he surpassed 4,000 passing yards in a single season.

WR Hines Ward recorded five receptions, giving him 1,000 for his career. He was the first Steeler and eighth player in NFL history to reach the mark.

WR Antonio Brown became the first player in NFL history with at least 1,000 yards receiving and at least 1,000 return yards in the same season.

For the second straight game, the Steelers defense did not allow a touchdown. The Steelers finished the regular season holding five of their final six opponents under 10 points.

AFC WILD CARD Denver 29 Pittsburgh 23 (OT)

January 8, 2012 Sports Authority Field at Mile High (75,970)

DENVER — QB Tim Tebow and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play in overtime to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 29-23 in the AFC Wild Card Game. It was the fasted ending in NFL history for any overtime game.

The Steelers got off to a fast start, moving the football into Denver territory on their first two possessions, but they had to settle for two field goals. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 45-yarder to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, and with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Suisham made a 38-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 6-0.

The Broncos would score 20 unanswered points in the second quarter. Tebow found WR Eddie Royal for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Broncos a 7-6 lead. Tebow then scored on an eight-yard run less than three minutes later to give the Broncos a 14-6 lead. K Matt Prater connected on two field goals of 20 and 28 yards before halftime to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead going into the break.

The Steelers would mount a comeback. WR Mike Wallace scored on a one-yard run midway through the third quarter to cut the lead to 20-13. Prater added a 35-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 23-13 lead but the Steelers answered with another Suisham field goal.

Trailing 23-16, the Steelers defense forced RB Willis McGahee to fumble, giving QB Ben Roethlisberger a short field. Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the game 23-23 with 3:48 remaining.

The Steelers had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Roethlisberger was sacked on two of the team's final three plays, forcing overtime.

After Suisham's kickoff sailed through the uprights, the Broncos took over at their own 20-yard line. Tebow threw the touchdown to Thomas on the very next play.

By holding each Broncos' running back to less than 100 yards rushing, the Steelers extended their streak of not allowing a 100-yard rusher in the postseason to an NFL-best 18 consecutive postseason contests.

Roethlisberger became just the second player in team history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the postseason.

Steelers

STEELERS History

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief", as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coultersville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Steelers founder Art Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owners Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Dan Rooney spent 54 consecutive years with the organization before being named U.S. Ambassador to Ireland in 2009 by President Barack Obama. Rooney was required to move to Ireland in 2009 to fulfill his duties as ambassador.

As an NFL owner, Dan Rooney was widely recognized as one of the league's most influential executives and one of Pittsburgh's leading contributors to civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The American Ireland Fund, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and The Heinz History Center.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children and 17 grandchildren.

Dan Rooney was named Steelers' Chairman Emeritus in July 2009 after he was named United States Ambassador to Ireland.

In 2002, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers' team president to his oldest son, Art Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's vice presdent and general counsel. Art II also previously served as Chairman of the Board of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling (now Buchanon Ingersol), Attorneys at Law. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. His many charitable contributions include sitting on the boards of Pittsburgh's Children's Museum, Greater Pittsburgh Council of the Boy Scouts of America, United Way of Allegheny County and Board of Trustees at Duquesne University. He and his wife Greta have four children.

STEELERS History

After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1934 Pittsburgh Pirates

1940s

In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0, to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1950s

Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

1942

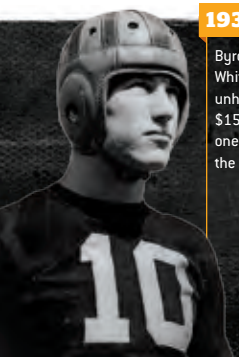
The Pittsburgh Pirates are officially renamed the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1943

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Philadelphia Eagles to form the "Steagles" as many rosters were depleted due to World War II.

1947

December 21, 1947 – The Steelers play their first postseason game, a 21-0 setback to the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division Playoffs.



1938

Byron "Whizzer" White paid an unheard-of $15,800 to play one season for the Steelers.

1942

November 22, 1942 – The Steelers defeat the Chicago Cards 19-3 to clinch their first winning season in team history.

1944

The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) as many rosters were still depleted due to World War II.

1957

STEELERS History

Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks third among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, remains the only Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of the 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today, Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1970s

A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted 10 players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Steel Curtain

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders, 13-7, with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

1964

October 25, 1964 – The Steelers retire Ernie Stautner's No. 70, becoming the first and only jersey number to be retired in team history.

1969

January 28, 1969 – "Mean" Joe Greene is selected by the Steelers in the first round of the NFL Draft.

1970

August 28, 1970 – Pittsburgh defeats the New York Giants, 21-6, in the first preseason game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1969

January 27, 1969 – Chuck Noll is named head coach of the Steelers.

1970

The Pittsburgh Steelers move from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL.

1970

September 20, 1970 – The Steelers fall to the Houston Oilers, 19-7, in their first regular-season game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1972

December 23, 1972 – The Steelers win their first playoff game in dramatic fashion with a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders on Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception."

STEELERS History

SUPER BOWL X, STEELERS 21, COWBOYS 17

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 defeat of the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories, including five shutouts, to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland, 24-7, after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

The 1970's Steelers were tagged "Team of the Decade."

1974

January 29, 1974 – The Steelers select future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann (first round), Jack Lambert (second), John Stallworth (fourth) and Mike Webster (fifth) in the NFL Draft. Many consider it the best draft in NFL history. Following the draft, the Steelers also signed free agent Donnie Shell, who went on to become one of the team's all-time best safeties.

1975

January 12, 1975 – Pittsburgh defeats the Minnesota Vikings, 16-6, to capture the team's first Super Bowl victory in Super Bowl IX in New Orleans' Tulane Stadium.

STEELERS History

1980s

As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by 6-10 in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed newfound success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

1980

January 6, 1980 – The Steelers "weather" the Pittsburgh elements as they defeat the Houston Oilers at a rain-soaked Three Rivers Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XIV.

1980

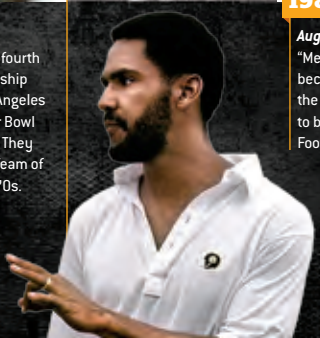
January 20, 1980 – The Steelers win their fourth Super Bowl championship by defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV in Pasadena, Calif. They would be named the Team of the Decade of the 1970s.

1984

Tony Dungy is named defensive coordinator for the Steelers, becoming the NFL's first African-American coordinator.

1987

August 8, 1987 – "Mean" Joe Greene becomes the first player of the 1970s Steelers' teams to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.



STEELERS History

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with the AFC's best record of 12-4. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted it's first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

1995 AFC Championship, Steelers 20, Colts 16

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories, ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance but lost to Denver, 24-21, in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Bill Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

1991

STEELERS History

2000s

After starting the 2000 season with a 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7, and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with a 182-73 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, 27-10, in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing 24-17 loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots.

After a 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the season with a 6-10 record and out of the playoffs for the first time in three years.

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots,

STEELERS History

2003 #1 Draft Pick, Troy Polamalu

41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but it rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard TD pass from Antwaan Randle El on a gadget play midway through the fourth quarter.

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2006, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall record, second best in team history.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's coach. Tomlin was the NFL's youngest head coach at the time he was hired on Jan. 22, 2007.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

Mike Tomlin became the first coach in franchise history to win a division title in each of his first two seasons when the Steelers captured their second consecutive AFC North division title with a 12-4 record. They went on to defeat the San Diego Chargers and Baltimore Ravens to gain a berth in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Florida versus the Arizona Cardinals.

The Steelers became the first NFL franchise to capture six Super Bowl titles when they defeated the Cardinals, 27-23. With the victory, Head Coach Mike Tomlin became the youngest coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history. Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Steelers added to their legacy, making it all the way to Super Bowl XLV after a 12-4 record during the 2010 season. The Steelers though could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell to the Green Bay Packers 31-25. Despite the loss, the Steelers still hold the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories with six.

February 5, 2006 – Pittsburgh Steelers win their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL in Detroit.

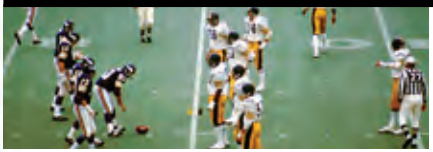
SUPER BOWL IX Pittsburgh 16, Minnesota 6

January 12, 1975 Tulane Stadium (80,997)



NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in QB Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by defense. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota offensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' C Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh DE Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the nine.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, while Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

SUPER BOWL X Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17

January 18, 1976 Miami Orange Bowl (80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to TE Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic three interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas S Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh LB Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers' reserve FB Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only two yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers' S Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was intercepted by S Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

SUPER BOWL XIII Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31

January 21, 1979 Miami Orange Bowl (78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers' QB Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys' QB Roger Staubach saw TE Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas CB Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to TE Billy Joe Dupree and Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

SUPER BOWL XIV Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19

January 20, 1980 Rose Bowl Stadium (103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams' DE Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers WR John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams' CB Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit WR Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from QB Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

SUPER BOWL XXX Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17

January 28, 1996 Sun Devil Stadium (76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas CB Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four yard-line two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl.
The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions— a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

SUPER BOWL XL Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 10

February 5, 2006 Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history (S.F. 49ers and Dallas Cowboys).

Backed by a predominantly Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it failed to gain a first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead throughout the second quarter.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the half as Roethlisberger dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the second half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open by driving to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game on a gadget play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with 8:56 left in the game. Randle El's touchdown pass was the first by a wide receiver in Super Bowl history.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions to post the victory. Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while RB Jerome Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

SUPER BOWL XLIII Pittsburgh 27, Arizona 23

February 1, 2009 Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch their NFL-record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. K Jeff Reed booted an 18-yard field goal on the opening drive to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to 10-0 when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as if they were going to take their first lead late in the first half, but LB James Harrison intercepted Warner at the goal-line, raced 100 yards and dove into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed in the third quarter upped the lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

The Steelers were backed up to their own 12-yard line on the next drive, but Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger threaded a perfect pass through three defenders and Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 35 seconds left.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble to essentially end the game.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) with one touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

SUPER BOWL XLV Green Bay 31, Pittsburgh 25

Fecruary 6, 2011 Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and on the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards out. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to win their fourth Super Bowl.

When he retired, Butler ranked as the NFL's second all-time leader with 52 career interceptions. The Pittsburgh native registered 827 return yards on interceptions, returning four for touchdowns. Butler also returned one fumble for a touchdown. Despite recording 25 interceptions in his first four seasons, Butler was not selected to his first of four career Pro Bowls until 1955. A season later he was named second-team All-NFL and would go on to earn first-team All-NFL honors in each of the following three seasons.

Dermontti Dawson

Center (1988-2000) Elected: 2012

Dermontti Fara Dawson was a second-round draft pick by the Steelers in 1988 and played guard as a rookie before replacing Hall of Famer Mike Webster at center in 1989. Dawson started for the majority of a 13-year career that saw him play in 184 games during the regular season, including 170 consecutive, the third longest streak in franchise history. He was named to seven consecutive Pro Bowls (1993-99), was a first team All-Pro for six straight years (1993-98) and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s. During Dawson's 13-year career, which ties for the third-most seasons played in franchise history, he helped the Steelers win five division titles, appear in three AFC Championships and one Super Bowl, and record a winning record nine times.

Note: Other Hall of Famers who spent part of their careers with the Steelers include: Cal Hubbard (Player 1936, elected 1963), Marion Motley (Player 1955, elected 1968), Earle (Greasy) Neale (Coach 1943, elected 1969), Bill Hewitt (Player 1943, elected 1971), Len Dawson (Player 1957-1959, elected 1987), and Dick LeBeau (Coached from 1992-1996, 2004-pres., elected 2010).
